COORDINATING COMMITTEE

MEMORANDUM BY THE GERMAN DELEGATION

ON A TRADE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC AND POLAND

The German Delegation have the honour to inform the Committee that a further extension of the German-Polish trade protocol of November 16, 1956, which by several agreements had already been extended until December 31, 1958, has been agreed upon. This trade protocol will thus be valid for the year 1959, and - provided that no notice is given by October 31, 1959 - also for the year 1960. The commodity-lists I and II whose quantity - and value - limits will be extended pro rata temporis, will continue to be in force. Deliveries of embargo goods are not provided for unless within the Cocom regulations.
